

Senior Systems Administrator

The Senior Systems Administrator will work in our Microsoft-based environment and will be responsible for the architecture, configuration, and maintenance of all systems. Will also have the opportunity to work with network systems and SIP related technologies.

KEY DUTIES AND RESPONSIBILITIES:

- Build, configure, maintain, and monitor Windows and Linux servers in a production environment
- Assist in architecting the Alianza Platform for high availability (5 nine's) and scalability
- Responsible for maintaining SAN, local and networked storage and backups
- Assist with configuration and maintenance of network including firewalls, routers and switches
- Maintain a fully functional test lab
- Record, track, and document all pertinent information relating to the systems being maintained.
- Provide technical expertise to architect and support applications and technologies in a large scale 24x7 environment.
- Become expert on the platform settings/configurations and maintain documentation on the system configuration for changes, new releases, bug fixes, project release notes, etc.
- Worldwide Management of Alianza's data center (co-location) facilities and establishment of new POP's from the ground-up
- Develop and maintain an up-to-date disaster recovery plan
- Research & purchase new platform hardware and software
- Strict adherence to defining and documenting policies and procedures (change management, asset management etc.)

SKILLS AND EXPERIENCE REQUIRED:

- Minimum 3 years experience administering large networks or datacenter
- Expertise with Windows Server 2003/2008 required
- Experience with administration of MS SQL Server 2005/2008 helpful, clustering experience helpful
- Experience with MS Exchange Server 2007/2010
- Experience with Cisco or Brocade routers, switches and firewalls
- VoIP and Telecom experience including in-depth knowledge of SIP extremely helpful
- Ability to trouble shoot and solve problems of a non-routine nature